NEWARK CITIZEN'S ADVISORY BOARD

This leaflet prepared by the Citizen's Advisory Board and produced by the Newark Public Information Office.

Kenneth A. Gibson
MAYOR
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY
07102

improving the quality of life in any city can be translated to mean improvement in the quality of the services that the city dispenses. One of the keys to the delivery of services is the development of a constituency that is cognizant of these services, and the methods of obtaining the benefits provided by the services. Our city has endeavored to achieve such a well-informed citizenry, and we will continue to work hard toward this end, by doing everything in our power to make available to the public all pertinent information concerning the departments and agencies that affect their lives and well-being.

KENNETH A. GIBSON
Mayor, City of Newark

CITIZEN'S ADVISORY BOARD

The Board represents a broad spectrum of the entire city of Newark.

It is the primary responsibility of the Board to represent the interests of all residents of the city on a city-wide basis by the exercise of the rights and powers designated by the by laws of the Board and by any amendments which are adopted by the Board.

This Board consists of 27 members — 18 are appointed by the Mayor and nine appointed by the City Council's elected representatives.

PURPOSES

1. The Citizen's Advisory Board keeps the Mayor abreast of the needs of the residents of the City of Newark.
2. Provides citizen input into the decision — making process of evaluation, reviewing, and planning of the Housing and Community Development program.
3. Suggests methods of improving the delivery of services to the citizens of Newark.
4. Provides methods of insuring citizen and community input and feedback in the decision-making process.

Official meetings of this Board are held at least once a month. The Executive Board meets at least twice a month. Task Forces meet at least once a week.

The Citizen's Advisory Board members work in concert with the Director of MPDO and report monthly to the Board and to the Executive Board.
